Then install the Complete Edition Release 12, then you can open all your Poser Pro 2012 Content without Pro in the full version of Poser Pro 2012 Complete Edition. Of course you can remove the Poser Pro 2012 Content via the installer file 'We're not here to get wasted': Oregon stoners lament new limits on pot use Oregon medical marijuana dispensaries had few complaints with the early days of legal recreational marijuana use, when pot buyers walked in and walked out with a bag or two of the stuff. The complaints came a year or so ago — with sobriety taking a hit. The word “stoned” became a catch-all for impaired, and people became more careful with how they used and managed their stash. Some dispensaries started giving light-touch menus that featured a hamburger-style list of appetizers and desserts, keeping the menu simple and perhaps allay the fear that a pot-infused meal would leave a bad, long-lasting aftertaste. Now, as Oregon enters a new legal era, most people have come to realize that marijuana is no ordinary drug. It's a mind-altering medicine that's been gaining acceptance in mainstream medicine for centuries. “I'm sorry, but that was the Portland years,” said Mary Miller, who runs Mary's Medicinals, a pot-friendly dispensary on Northwest 23rd Avenue. “If you go to a dispensary, most of the people there will be mellow.” The vision from Gov. Kate Brown and lawmakers of removing a reefer stigma that's been around since the federal government decided that marijuana was a dangerous drug in the 1930s might be accurate, she said. But the laws aren't. “It definitely took a little bit of getting used to,” said Miller, who has worked
