The Eden Prairie, Minn. woman who duped men on Craigslist to pay for sex on a daily basis was sentenced to prison in February. Now, authorities in Wisconsin are planning to extradite her to face misdemeanor solicitation charges. Kelly Lucas, 42, was sentenced to up to 27 months in federal prison for her role in a scheme that involved dozens of men. She admitted to meeting at least six men for sex on a daily basis in at least five states. This week, the Waukesha County District Attorney's Office filed a motion to extradite Lucas back to Wisconsin for prosecution on misdemeanor solicitation charges. According to the Waukesha County Sheriff's Office, Lucas, 42, was arrested at her residence in Eden Prairie, Minn. last month. The investigation began when she was charged with a felony in Minnesota after she accepted a $5,000 wire transfer while working as a manager at a franchise McDonald's. Lucas, 42, was arrested last month after she became an informant to Milwaukee County Sheriff's deputies. She worked at a franchise McDonald's in the Milwaukee area. (Google Maps) It was also discovered that she had used the money to pay for a lavish lifestyle, like gambling and shopping. Lucas told police she was selling sex to men as a source of income. In Wisconsin, it is a misdemeanor to provide sexual activity for remuneration. According to a police report, Lucas used the name "Kelly" when she went undercover. At first, she met men in Wisconsin, New York and Pennsylvania. She would then drive the men to Eden Prairie, Minn. She asked for their contact information and took a picture of them. Once she had enough money, she would stop the exchange of money and give them pictures of her sexual parts, according to the report. One of the men she met online told police she regularly asked him to pay for sex once a week. He then agreed to meet with her in Wisconsin. Another man told her he wanted to live a "cheat" life. She arranged for him to stay with her in Eden Prairie, Minn. while she was on her "work" tour. 570a42141b
