Family members of any age can create great DVDs, CDs, and Blu-ray discs . Life is too short to do things you will regret doing later. To stay mentally and physically fit one needs to exercise. Some people spend hours in their gym while others prefer to hike. Find out what suit you best. Hiking There are many things to see and do on the trail, whether you are spending a short or a long time on your hike. Some of these are very important, but they can be overlooked on a long hike. I will list them, so you can decide for yourself whether you will be able to do them all. Some places, like the Seven Mountains, are to be seen only once in a lifetime. You need to choose your best gear for your hike. General Things to Remember before Hiking (43) In case you are going to hike for several days, I have compiled a list of things that you should always keep in mind before leaving on your hike. Hydration is important. You might need to put in an extra effort if you are in a high altitude.
