I really don't want to make a fuss or anything here. Later as a result of frustration, I started crying and made a scene. The reason for my outburst was because I'm not feeling like someone who is supposed to be feeling better than my parents. I am still feeling the pain. This is so hard to write. I probably hate you already. But for the sake of showing you how things are going for me, at times I could not help myself. In my parents' house, I have to hide what I am feeling, or when I am not feeling well. From them, I need to hide it. There is no one in my family who can tell me what I want to hear, no one who can comfort me. I cry myself to sleep, because I want someone to hug me and tell me it will be okay. But I am thankful that there is no one at my home anymore. With the breakup of my marriage, I thought I wanted to start a family. But now that it's all over, I don't have any interest in having a child. But I don't want to cry in front of the person who once promised me to always stand by me. I wish to cry to you; I'll try everything in my power to stop crying. Although I don't want to let it show, please stop asking me why I'm crying. From my weak heart, I feel like I want to tell you the truth, and I feel so sad. But I don't want you to see it. And I don't want to be weak. This is what I feel. I'm determined that I will stop this, and I'm already making an effort. But if you keep making me cry, I won't change. I try to turn to you. To you I want to show my heart. But I know that to you I will be nothing but another thorn on your side. I tried to express my feelings, 55cdc1ed1c
