KEYMACRO - is the most convenient tool for recording and playback of keystrokes, mouse and clipboard activities of your computer. That is, it saves your time, when you do not want to see all the screen, and you are doing your work in some special window. KEYMACRO allows you to "record" entire screens, or only visible areas of it, and allows you to pause or replay the recording. And it can be played back in any order: you can display, rewind and fast forward recorded items. The program provides you the possibility to set the order, speed and number of repetitions of any recorded item. Using KEYMACRO you can easily create a macro script that can be used to repeat the same actions many times or to start the same program automatically when you power on your PC. KEYMACRO allows you to record the following events: keystrokes, mouse movements, clipboard activities, window and control positions, etc. KEYMACRO allows the user to record all keystrokes and mouse clicks that occur in any application or window. The mouse movements of the mouse pointer, positions of controls and window positions are also recorded. This way you can use KEYMACRO to record any process in the computer, and later replay and analyze it. You can do the same with the Clipboard. The program records everything that the user types in the Windows clipboard, and you can replay or modify the contents of the clipboard in any way. For example, you can make the application copy the URL of a Web site from the clipboard, or modify the contents of the clipboard to include a desired text. The user can also analyze the contents of the Windows Clipboard and replay it. The program includes special analysis tools that allow you to identify the content of the clipboard with images, search it with regular expressions, or copy the selected text. To make KEYMACRO work you must install Windows 7 or later. KEYMACRO is freeware for personal use. 1.9.2 26-May-2017 1.9.1 12-May-2016 1.9.0 New features and minor improvements If you can't download this game, try to download one of the related games. 1.8.8 10-Dec-2015 New Features • Video DLS and Audio DLS • Thumbnails instead of images (recommended for slow computers) • Better fonts in all languages • Full screen mode in addition 1a22cd4221
