Windows 10 Carbon can be used as a standalone product to create a custom Windows 10 GUI for a single application. Carbon's emphasis on simplicity is both its greatest strength and weakness. It is an easier way to skin a cat than a more powerful tool. However, Windows 10 Carbon can help you to create a product that is more in line with the Windows 10 Technical Preview with a simple, in-your-face style experience. 1. Get a GUI Skin After installing Carbon, your experience will start with the installation of a default GUI skin. It can be either imported or created from scratch. This GUI skin includes three pages: - Reset page: In the Reset page, you can change the hotkey keys, and other options related to the taskbar.

We assume that to go on a vacation, you have to take some time off from work. This is wrong. In reality, a vacation does not mean a free weekend from work. It simply means that you are taking a break from your normal routine and enjoying yourself. Also, you have to find a place where you can just relax and unwind. And for many people, there's no greater place than the beach. The beauty of beach vacation destinations is that they offer some of the most refreshing and rejuvenating activities, activities that you cannot recreate even in the most ideal conditions. There's always something new to see and enjoy. Besides, these places are relatively cheap; you can experience them with minimal efforts. The good news is that there are many beaches around the world that offer fun at various price ranges. All you need to do is look around and see which one is the best fit for your holiday ideas. The following is a list of the top 7 beach destinations that are great for beach vacations. 1. Miami Beach, Florida – This city is home to some of the best-looking beaches in the world. Visit Miami Beach from April to October, if you want to avoid the crowds. During that time, you can take part in the numerous music festivals held on the sands. Also, Miami Beach is a great location for some adrenaline pumping activities like water-skiing and swimming. 2. Newport Beach, California – This is arguably one of the most popular beach destinations in the world. The only problem is that you have to prepare yourself to be mobbed by people. There's nothing much to do in Newport. However, during the high season, all the activities are packed with tourists. The good news is that if you plan carefully, you can still find a quiet spot to spend a few days with your loved ones. 3. Guam – This small island in the Pacific is actually one of the best places to do scuba diving. Additionally, there are opportunities to see a lot of wildlife, as it is one of the few places in the
