There are many time which the web page from which you want to watch the television, can not be loaded for a long time period. However, you can watch all the channel which you want on your PC. You can watch the TV without a problem without an additional procedure. I had the same problem with Windows Update, but I upgraded my MBR (Master Boot Record) to a NTFS format and now it takes a lot longer to install updates, of course I had to close my downloads first.
