ComposerI have a question. Do you see the difference between the girls clothing. One wearing (left) size L/XS, one wearing M/L. If they have the same size does that mean that the size is the same? I have bras for the L/XS but the M/L is a different style so I think they are same for size. Is the color difference due to skirt being black/blue/blue/gray etc? I have seen both styles but doesn't look the same. I think the M/L is the style with the panel that goes down the leg, right? I am going to buy them both and compare them. I have read about size difference and wonder what are the differences. The M/L are larger is size size. If it is the same size, which is better? I am
