We have also created a few instructional videos on specific techniques and features of the banjo. Two Uke players, David and Phil, are the authors of the "Uke Overdrive" CD, which has been released by Reverb Records in 1999. David and Phil have been playing together since high school, and since then have released 4 CDs on various labels. They were recently asked to release an educational CD on the ukulele, so they went into this project with a whole new set of musical ideas and a lot of enthusiasm. These lessons give you the feel of the song, and play exactly like the original. You can download all the songs from the "Grandfather Mountain" series on "Rhapsody of the Guitar". A great way to study these songs is to purchase a banjo, and play the songs as if you are accompanying yourself on the banjo, not only the guitar. Please leave a comment if you'd like to recommend a song from the series that you'd like to see available for downloading.
