10c Games, Branded Products, and a Moat My friends are playing hockey. It's snowing, and I keep referring to it as the "2D sport" and that's just a fun fact. My thoughts can be summed up by one word: MOAT. My team just missed out on the state championship again this year. It's an unfortunate fact of sports in Michigan. It is better to win 2-4 games than it is to lose 20-2. It's just not fair. But that's how it is in Michigan. When the Pistons were good, everyone in the city had a story. People in the city love the Tigers more than they love the Pistons. They hate each other. We're the same way. We love sports. We love watching sports. And we love being part of sports. With the Pistons being on a roll, the state of Michigan decided to take a step back. The state decided that it would only award championships to the Michigan High School Athletic Association and not the MIACT, which covers all middle and elementary schools in the state. That decision means that our teams have to play teams from other areas. We play teams from other states and even other countries. It makes winning a title
