Category:Video games developed in South Korea Category:Wrestling video gamesFORT WAYNE, Ind. (92.3 The Hit FM) – It's time to get ready to tune in, cause today we're releasing our series of TNT Cable Ratings Tracker Team Rankings for the 2013-2014 Season. Today's rankings are based on the various 'Power Rankings' (predominantly from ESPN's "College Football Sunday") and our own prediction of the various Top 20. In fact, more of our columns are based on complete rankings (including wins and losses) than on PPR. Obviously, we have quite the youth movement for this year with almost half of our Top 10 being freshmen. The situation was reversed last year. Amongst this year's new comers: Ole Miss's Bennet Matt and Cal's K.J. Costello. Both are ranked in the Top 10, while Oklahoma's Nick Stenberg (also a Top 10 newcomer) checks in at 11. A lot of other familiar faces were also ranked in last year's Top 10, such as Alabama's Derrick Henry at 10, LSU's Leonard Fournette at 9, and Florida State's Dalvin Cook at No. 8. St. John's star receiver DeV Vaughn Brown rounds out our Top 10, making this an altogether a young Top 10. In total, this year's rankings are based on a more balanced team of players. For example, Notre Dame and Michigan have been ranked at the same time with one at No. 10 and the other at No. 21. Thanks to many of you for your advice for our ratings. It was hard to tackle and there's no doubt you gave us some great suggestions, but we're more interested in your opinions and picks for the upcoming season. When Charles Bertoni's son was 12, his son sat his classmates down and told them a story. He told them about his son's grandmother, who was a schoolteacher in China, and his son's father, a computer scientist in Boston. His son told them about the grandparents and the parents and the homes they lived in, and he described in detail and in color what it had been like, as if he had lived those lives himself. The fathers, shocked and moved by the story, looked
