Notre Dame won two championships in these series in the late-1990s. The Huskies won 4-0 in 1981 and 4-3 in 1990. Notre Dame coach Muffet McGraw said after the win that the team had to come out and play. "We're obviously happy to win," she said. "But we're also competitive. We want to win. We're good." The Irish won 10 games last year and return their two leading scorers from a team that won the regular-season title. Notre Dame finished 10-6. The Fighting Irish play Michigan in the Big Ten championship on Tuesday. UConn had not beaten Notre Dame since 2011. Before that, the Huskies had won eight straight games in the rivalry. "It's a good win for us," McGraw said. "It's a good win for our program and it's a good win for Connecticut." UConn didn't play well in the first half. The Irish led 1-0 on an unassisted goal by Notre Dame's Desire
