

This marks the first time that a FIFA game has features to improve artificial intelligence (AI) and create a more realistic experience for in-game opponents. Players' names, faces, and skills will be better aligned with how they move. Create your dream XI from more than 450 real-life players using FUT Champions or from more than 450 real-life players in the Transfer Market, including the Elite XI, Master League and International XI. A key feature of FIFA 22's in-game engine is Players' Attack Intelligence. Players can now learn from their own and other players' mistakes and use the experience to perfect their play. FIFA 22 will feature Player Intelligence, in which players' movements influence the game, and the off-ball Work Rate gauges how much work the player is exerting. The Off-Ball Work Rate will now work off-ball more than ever before. Utilising the motion capture technology, players' movements will influence the game. All actions are now required to be performed off-ball. Additionally, players' "work rate" will now be tracked outside of possession. FIFA 22 features the 'Ultimate Team Experience', 'Ultimate Training' and 'The Journey Mode'. FIFA Ultimate Team owners will be able to train with over 450 real-life players. FIFA 22 will feature over 150 clubs from around the globe, including the largest number of leagues, and 120 stadiums from 21 different countries. // Copyright 2016 The Chromium Authors. This comes with a brand new Ultimate Team mode where players are able to create teams using all-star players, with the likes of Gerrard, Müller, Van Persie, and Drogba.
