What's New In?

A St. Lucie County man pulled a gun on his girlfriend and told her he was going to kill her when he found out she was having an affair, according to the Florida Highway Patrol. Kevin Eugene Poorman, 48, of the 2700 block of South Biscayne Avenue, was arrested Wednesday at 10:45 a.m. on Poorman Road. He was taken to the St. Lucie County Jail on charges of aggravated assault with a deadly weapon and domestic violence battery with great bodily harm. A deputy was called to the Poorman residence for a report of an assault. The victim, who is Poorman's girlfriend, told the deputy she and Poorman had been arguing about her "continued relationship with a younger man." The victim said Poorman found out about the affair from a Facebook text message and had repeatedly accused her of having an affair. The victim said Poorman took a loaded pistol from his drawer and held the gun to her head and said he would kill her if she continued to have the affair, according to the arrest affidavit. Poorman also placed the gun to the victim's back and head, according to the arrest report. The victim pulled the barrel of the gun away, and Poorman hit her head on a kitchen counter. Poorman then hit the victim a second time in the head with the butt of the pistol, according to the arrest report. The victim said Poorman then placed the barrel of the pistol inside her mouth and threatened to kill her. She told Poorman that if he did not calm down she would tell authorities he had a gun. The victim said Poorman then went into their bedroom and had a third confrontation with the victim. She was forced to leave the house in fear of her life. She refused to return to the house for a few days, and when she returned, Poorman kicked her out of the house, the report said. Poorman told authorities he was concerned for the victim's safety and made several attempts to calm her down. He told authorities he had a gun in a safe in their home, and when he found out about the affair, he took the gun out of the safe and wanted to show it to the victim, according to the report. He gave the gun to the victim and told her to bring it to the house. He said the incident was a misunderstanding and that the victim had said she would tell the truth to authorities.,
