This screen saver provides a simple and funny color cycling adventure. In the first part of the adventure you see a cycle, quite like a toy, red in one direction, white in the other one. You can tell the difference between both colors, as it is not as easy as it seems. You will also see a triangle, with green parts on both sides of the two red lines, and the picture will switch back and forth, red on one side and white on the other one, until the end of the picture. The cycle stops for 5 seconds, and it changes to a more pinkish color, and then, after this change, the cycle starts again, but now everything will be rotating around the red direction, except the two white lines, where it will be the other way. This screensaver is quite relaxing, but keeps you focused. In other word, what you need to focus on it is the cycle, which makes you relax and relieve stress. It is the perfect screensaver to get some sleep. Mazu Screen Saver Description: The perfect screensaver for someone you love. If you liked this screensaver, please rate it 5 stars!
