During the process, a.Q: CMD ASK and POP commands after each other I'm trying to make a CMD that will ask for a name, and if the name exists it will ask again for a new name, and save it as a TXT file. I'm stuck at a simple IF(==) not being able to compare. I've tried to make it as simple as possible to understand. SET /P Name = My Name: if EXIST "%Name%" (echo The name is %Name% pause CMD /C POP echo the name is %Name% pause GOTO START :START GOTO START) ELSE (GOTO START :START) I'm asking for what it is, so that I can store it in a TXT file called myname.txt. It should not go back to GOTO START if it doesn't find the name. So after the if statement, I asked it to save the name in myfile.txt, that should be created as long as the name is found. Sorry for the bad explanation, if you are not a beginner. A: Can you try something like this? :START if /i "%Name%" == "" pause goto START echo The name is %Name% pause GOTO START :START GOTO START After big success of Major League Baseball's
