Series 2 Although Series 2 of the Big Finish Productions Doctor Who line of audio dramas, which began in May 2004, was meant to be the final series of the popular Doctor Who spin-off, there are plans in the pipeline for a third series and a second soundtrack album. Series 2 is available at £15 on CD or £12 for download. 'The Two Doctors', set in 1954, is drawn from the pages of 'The First Time', a novel by Peter Davison and Terry Nation which introduced the Second Doctor. This story was also the final one of the Eighth Doctor's original three-year run on television, which ended in 1981; Davison, who had played the Ninth Doctor for the last year of the television series, made his final guest appearance in this story, and he played opposite Pertwee in Series 1. These two Doctors had been created by Pertwee's original successor, Jon Pertwee, and for this final story they were reunited in the TARDIS. The Eighth Doctor, meanwhile, had been returned to Earth to confront the Master, who had taken control of the Doctor's TARDIS and turned its controls against him. The
