A: This is not a library or package. It is a book. When you see "atlas-de-parasitologia-humana-ash-orihel-pdf-descargar" it is the title of that book. So, you could read the title on the web, or you could do this: Type the book title in Google. Find the ISBN of the book. Copy the ISBN number from the web. Go to your ISBN page in the Amazon (or somewhere else) and paste the ISBN number there. You should be redirected to the book description page, where you can read all the book contents. MOVERS and SHAKERS Klaas en Keeren & Berties Klaas en Keeren are a father-son team of MOTION PICTURE TRADERS and they specialise in moving and shaking their way around the world. This year they focus on the 'Eiffel Towers' of Montreal. Klaas's move in the 80s was to Amsterdam where he was a well known shoe designer. Keeren's move was to a company in Boston. Their last move was to Portland in Canada where they are now based. They move there on a Friday and arrive Monday at their new loft in the old warehouse district in the town's historic downtown. It's a mile and a half walk but they love it! They have recently acquired some poplar barrels from the 1800s which they turn into a coffee table and which hold their 'shaking' instruments. They play around with styles, but the term 'love' is over-used! They have a bass, a drum set and a control unit which allows for interesting timbres. They use a microprocessor to create delicate beats and melodies on their instruments. Their favourite instruments are the vocals, drums, mini synthesiser and a little pedal piano. On one of their shows they used a pitch pipe and a circle of marimba bells which they had cut with acoustic steel strings. Their record collection is eclectic and from about four decades ago on. They like lots of beats, but not too loud. Their performances are in Montreal, Toronto and the United States at film festivals, dance shows, solo performances, drums with a story, drums with accompaniment, percussion beats, shows and parties.
