Ochocinco was arrested Thursday morning and faces charges of criminal possession of a controlled substance, possession of drug paraphernalia and possession of a controlled substance with intent to distribute. He was booked into the Los Angeles County Jail and was being held for a bail of $25,000, according to a sheriff's department spokesman. The NFL stars' arrest is the latest in a string of professional athletes being arrested for drug charges, and may be viewed as the latest example of why athletes should not get paid. "As important as it is for these guys to have sponsorships, you have to be aware of the risks they face," said former NFL receiver Cris Collinsworth. "There
