Players can play the entire match on Career Mode, take control of their favorite clubs in a whole new way or dive into instant-action Friendlies matches. Gamers can now play with the deepest and most realistic gameplay on the console. FIFA 20's Global Series is back for its seventh installment, pitting some of the best players in the world head-to-head across five live-streamed and on-demand games, including the FIFA 20 Global Series Playoffs. If you missed last year's three-game tournament, you can catch up on the winners bracket on TSN GO. In the playoffs, the No. 1 seed will take on the No. 4 seed and the No. 2 seed will be playing the No. 3 seed. So far, the only confirmed games are the featured matchups of the World Cup's semifinal contest between France and Croatia, Argentina vs. Belgium and Brazil vs. Mexico. As with FIFA 17 and 18, players will earn Global Series points for online and offline wins, while the top players from the global leaderboards will earn a spot in the FIFA 20 World Cup. In the playoffs, all four games will be streamed live in North America on TSN (6 p.m. ET) and TSN GO (6 a.m. ET), with all games available to stream on the TSN GO app and on TSN.ca. More details on the format and matchups will be released in the coming weeks. FIFA 20's new Global Series is now available on all platforms: Xbox One, Xbox One X, PlayStation 4, PlayStation 4 Pro, Nintendo Switch, PC, iPhone, iPad, Mac and Android. The new FIFA 20 Global Series features details on all of the new features in FIFA 20, including Global Series, the new Career Mode, and Friendlies. The new improved ball physics brings the ball to life on the pitch in a way that is unprecedented. Global Series playoffs Playoffs begin with the World Cup semifinal on Thursday, Sept. 13 at 12:30 p.m. ET on TSN and TSN GO (6 a.m. ET). Watch the live stream and stream it on the TSN GO app and on TSN.ca. Then the FIFA 20 Global Series Playoffs will take place over three days, Sept. 14-16, with the World Cup final on Sunday, Sept. 17 at 12
