The NRA's director of federal affairs, Andrew Arulanandam, told Business Insider that it won't be asking for more gun restrictions as part of its campaign. Instead, he said, the group is planning to push for new restrictions on gun shows and in the media. Arulanandam said the group is going to run ads targeting this "dangerous group of people" in the weeks leading up to the November election. The gun-rights group, which may see its strategy thwarted this fall due to increasing
