What you are buying: Cutting table and another 2 storage containers for decorating. When you buy: February, 2009. Price: $49.99 Where I bought it: online. I went through some online retail websites to search for cutting tables and storage containers. I love to find bargains online! Each shopping site has its own advantages and I'm picky. I like to save money. Total Time: 1 hour and 23 minutes. Cost per hour: $49.99 Money I saved: $49.99 = $49.99/1.23 = $41.95/hour = $2.33/hour. Allan M. My granddaughter asked me to help her choose a new cutting table. She was looking for a cutting table that was easy to load and unload. I started looking through old magazines, shopping online, looking at catalogs, etc. I knew I wanted something that would not break the bank and that was easy to use. I did not want a plastic cutting table. After much searching, I decided on the Standish W. Cutting Table. I love this Cutting Table. I bought one for me and one for my granddaughter. She has a yard and flowers to cut. I did a little redesigning of the outside of the table. I wanted a tray for my paper and scissors. I bought a small folding plastic tray at a local store. It worked fine. I also wanted more of a frame than the Standish has. I went to a local home shop and saw the Wenzler Bench. After cutting the edges and soldering on the legs, I added a 1/2 inch piece of wood to the front of the Standish to fill up the space in the frame. I like my table! I love the colors. They are perfect for my granddaughter. It is heavy enough that it takes two people to move it from one room to another. It is a good size for her so she can take it with her when she goes to school. It is not too small or too big for her. It is easy to load and unload. She loves the Standish
