Some of the GTA V news that has been revealed over the past few months has. Disproportionate penalisation: There is disproportionate punishment in the military system. Suspects are charged with treason, which is a capital crime. They get harsher punishment than if they were arrested for a non-violent misdemeanor. Suspects also get harsher punishment than if they were charged with the same crime but the evidence suggests that the suspect was not a threat to society. The Military Commissions Act allows for one-sided testimony and the use of hearsay evidence. With no presumption of innocence, detainees can be held indefinitely without being charged with a crime. They are subjected to horrifying detention conditions that violate the Geneva Conventions. Military commissions are the standard for prosecuting terrorists, non-combatants and those who allegedly fight for al-Qaeda, the Taliban, Hezbollah, Houthi rebels in Yemen, al-Shabaab in Somalia or related groups. There are no written rules regarding how military commissions are to operate. They have been used to prosecute and execute civilians, and in some instances the charges are based on "secret evidence," in other words evidence that was not admitted at trial. In December 2010, the United States Supreme Court ruled that the military commissions at Guantanamo Bay were not in compliance with the Constitution's requirement that the accused have a public trial. The court ruled that the commissions, which do not provide legal counsel to detainees, cannot be considered fair trials. This is particularly disturbing when considering that Article 21 of the Geneva Conventions states that "The Parties
