Shadow Of War Xbox Game.Â .Chicago Blackhawks forward Patrick Kane and Anaheim Ducks forward Matt Beleskey have been named the top offensive stars of the 2015-16 season, according to the Players' Tribune. Kane leads all players in goals, assists and points in the NHL with 15, 12 and 27, respectively. He ranks second in the league with a 1.25 points per game average. In addition to Kane's offensive impact, Beleskey has been the most dominant defenseman for the Ducks this season. The 27-year-old is tops in the league with 12 goals and 22 assists, and he is a top-10 goal-scorer among all NHL players. Kane has already won the Art Ross Trophy (league scoring champion), the Masterton Trophy (outstanding player who plays with injury) and the Conn Smythe Trophy (most valuable player in a playoff matchup), which he received in the NHL's championship series against the Tampa Bay Lightning. Ben Bishop of the Tampa Bay Lightning, who has an 0.934 goals-against average and an.977 save percentage, will be named the most valuable player of the 2014-15 season. Chris Kunitz and Tim Thomas will be awarded the William M. Jennings Trophy, given to the player "who best exemplifies the qualities of perseverance, sportsmanship, and dedication to ice hockey." The biggest change for the player-voting awards this year is the introduction of the "Team of the Year" award, which will be given to the team that has the highest combined point total through the first three rounds of the playoffs. Voting is conducted by the NHL Network's "Dynamic Duos" (Milan Lucic and Max Pacioretty, Tomas Hertl and Patrick Kane, and Alex Ovechkin and Nicklas Backstrom) and "Power Rankings" panels (Matt Duc
