FIFA? All modes in FIFA are themed around football. The modes are called seasons, cups and offline modes. Each mode will be explained more in the next section of this article. When you start the game, it will give you a question. One of the questions is about the name of the current year. You will also get a starting line up or a blank grid. This will give you some instructions. You can select the year you want to start, or start when you want, by selecting Start and selecting the date you want to start the game. Then you will get the summary of the game and start. You can choose which league you want to start in by selecting the league in the main menu. If you choose the Australian pre-season cup, you will start in the AFC Cup. You can also choose to compete in a number of competitions. You can choose the number of teams or the number of leagues you want to compete in, as well as the number of competitions you want to compete in. You can choose to play either season mode or offline mode. There are three main modes in FIFA. They are the season, online and offline modes
